

Telos Corporation Accelerates Growth to Process Background Checks for Aviation Workers at U.S. Airports

February 10, 2022

Cybersecurity leader's aviation channeling service experiences consistent growth, with five renewals and two new customers

ASHBURN, Va., Feb. 10, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Telos® Corporation (NASDAQ: TLS), a leading provider of cyber, cloud and enterprise security solutions for the world's most security-conscious organizations, announced today continued momentum surrounding the company's Designated Aviation Channeling (DAC) service, with two new customers and five customer renewals secured through 2023.

Kalitta Air, LLC and Kalitta Charters, Telos' newest DAC customers, join an impressive roster of aviation customers, including those renewing Telos' DAC services, with some having been with Telos for nearly ten years. These renewals include Dayton International Airport (DAY), Luis Muñoz Marín International Airport (SJU), Philadelphia International Airport (PHL), Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport (PHX) and San Bernardino International Airport (SBD).

"Our DAC aviation partners' decision to continue the use of our DAC service is a testament to the impact our aviation channeling services have had on increasing efficiencies within their credentialing and vetting operations, while ensuring the identities of aviation workers," said Dawn E. Lucini, vice president of aviation security, Telos. "We look forward to continuing to support our outstanding roster of aviation customers with excellence in credentialing and vetting services, all while upholding unwavering security, reducing costs and providing superior customer care and flexibility."

Telos' DAC services meet Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and Department of Homeland Security (DHS) requirements for handling personally identifiable information and biometrics. The services provide critical security solutions and outstanding 24/7 customer care to conduct comprehensive background checks for those working in secure areas of U.S. commercial airports, enabling the submission of worker biographic and biometric data for a secure, efficient, cost-effective approach.
