

Telos Corporation Renews $5.4M Cyber GRC Engagement with Leading Global Technology Company

January 8, 2026

Contract expansion reflects nearly four-year relationship supporting large-scale cloud security and compliance operations

ASHBURN, Va., Jan. 08, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Telos Corporation (NASDAQ: TLS), a leading provider of cyber, cloud and enterprise security solutions for the world's most security-conscious organizations, today announced the renewal of its ongoing partnership with a Fortune 100 global technology company to deliver cyber governance, risk, and compliance (GRC) and security operations support for large-scale commercial cloud environments.

The agreement, valued at $5.4 million, reflects the continued growth of a relationship that began in July 2022. In support of the customer, Telos will continue providing cyber GRC oversight across multiple cloud product lines, supporting the maintenance of existing authorities to operate (ATOs) and the achievement of new authorizations, while leading enterprise security, account operations, and information assurance workflows.

"This award underscores Telos' role as a trusted, long-term cybersecurity partner for organizations operating complex, highly regulated cloud environments," said John B. Wood, CEO and chairman, Telos. "Our team brings deep expertise in cyber GRC and operational security, helping customers maintain compliance while securely scaling critical cloud platforms."

Telos has more than two decades of experience delivering cyber governance, risk, and compliance solutions across government and commercial environments. For more information, visit www.telos.com.
